"STEP BY STEP"

Upon our arrival in San Miguel De Allende, Guanajuato we have been able to meet other pastor's, Christians, and churches. They have been a blessing to us in friendship and in hospitality. Just recently we located a place to live so we are very thankful for our home. On one occasion in town while leaving the grocery store a lady came to help my wife with the groceries. The lady's name is Antonia and she said she doesn't work for the store but they let her assist the customers with their groceries to the car; of course the customers give her a tip for her service. My wife had the opportunity to lead her to the Lord.

Prayer Requests:

1. Pray for Antonia, a new believer.
2. Pray for open doors for our new ministry.
3. Pray for the process for my permit to do missionary work in Mexico.
4. Pray for our physical/ spiritual strength.
5. Pray for our van mechanical.

We want to say thank you so much for your faithful support /or prayers.

Your Missionaries,

Darrain, , Mari, & Damaris Coker

"It is useless to try to feel different; trying does not touch feelings. It is useless to argue with oneself; feelings elude arguments. Be patient- feelings are like the mists that cover the mountains in misty weather. The mists pass; the mountains abide. Turn to your Father, tell Him you know that He loves you whether you feel it or not, and that you know He is with you whether you feel His presence or not..." -Amy Carmichael (Missionary to India 1895-1951)
