February 2011

Dear Friends,

I can't believe it is already February! I hope you all have been having a great year. I know I have! Last year ended well, as I had the opportunity to visit my parents in Texas. My brother was also able to be there. We all had a good time together.

This year has brought about a few changes for me. I will no longer be helping in 2 Bible clubs. Don't worry; it's not what you think . . . I will be taking charge of one of the clubs. My good friend Rosy started a Bible club in her house, and it went so well, that Alma, one of the helpers, wanted a club in her house. Rosy then started the club with the intention to turn it over to Alma after a year of training. However, God had other plans. He blessed Alma and her husband with a beautiful new baby girl. With a baby it is just too much to take over full responsibilities of the club, so I will be taking it over. That also means I am taking over the financial part. I will be buying kid-sized benches for the club, as the ones we used belong to Rosy, who will be using them in her other club. I am also providing the teaching materials, and supplies.

Another change coming up is camp. We usually have youth camp, where I help out as a counselor. But this year we are having family camp. At family camp I will be the children's director for the younger kids (3-6ish). I will have the kids for several hours in the morning and evening. If any of you have been around kids that age, you know that means I have to plan a GREAT variety of activities! I am responsible for those expenses as well.

If any of you would like to help out with the Bible club, or camp expenses, it would be greatly appreciated. I have many expenses coming up, so anything would really help me out. I could also use your prayers for these activities.

Thank you so much! I love all of you, and am happy to have you all as a part of my ministry.

God bless you all,

Melissa Houston
