Harold and Lena

July, 2018

Thanks, be unto the Lord, for each of you!

Great times in the mission work: The first of June there were two saved and nine baptized (the first picture), three adults, four teens and two older children. Since then there have been three more saved. Lena lead Doctor Synthia to the Lord and Ana was able to lead Reyna to the Lord. Pray for them as they are reaching out to family. Since they three of their family have been saved.

The work is maturing and we have five teachers for Sunday School. Sunday School is growing, we thank the Lord for faithfulness. (second picture of one of the classes) One of the men has been trained to preach in my absence. With a strong emphasis on soul winning, we are seeing a good group of young people and adults going out for the Lord. The offerings are covering the rent, utilities, missions and extra expenses. They support a Honduran missionary reaching villages in Western Honduras. Our missionary, Jacobo, is standing beside me in the last picture.

The last picture is of the teachers at youth camp. The men are from our early ministry and are now pastors. Our oldest son, Leslie leads the youth camp. It was a wonderful youth camp where our teens learned leadership and holiness.

We cherish your prayers as a man came to try to take over the work. He and another man have been Satan's tools but the people were strong in the Lord and the Lord did not allow it.

Lena's surgery went very well. Thank you for your prayers and concern. She had a joint replaced in one finger and a fusion done in another. It has healed well and she has good movement and does not need therapy. One more doctor visit and we will return to Honduras.

Please be in prayer for the upcoming men's conference I will be teaching in October and for a mission conference in the mission work.

Yours in Christ,
