Celebrating 48 Years as Missionaries

April, 2021

Thanks, be unto the Lord, for each of you!

Married 60 years Romans 8:28, John 10:16

Lena and I met while in High School and became friends. After high school we were engaged and almost a year later we were married. I married my lifelong best friend April 15, 1961.

The following January we moved to Seattle, Washington, working for Boeing Aircraft and later joined a new Independent Baptist mission from Arlington, Texas. We were both saved at a young age.

1967 We were called by the Lord to Bible Baptist Seminary where both of us graduated and then went to San Antonio, Texas to work in a small church. It was there that the Lord called us to serve in Honduras as missionaries. We were approved by the mission board in the summer of 1973.

After approval we did deputation and language school. We arrived in Honduras 1976 and soon started a new mission. The picture below is that mission organized into a church 1978 with our trained pastor, Pedro.

It has been marvelous life serving the Lord establishing eight churches and now working in a growing mission work that is building a new church facility to move into soon. We are already discussing starting a new mission work.

We are so grateful to the Lord for leading us down this trail, giving us this lasting friendship, love and privilege to serve Him together. Thank you for your prayers and support,

Iglesia Bautista Los Jutes, our first church.

Yours in Christ,

Harold and Lena Priday
