

On the Wings of Prayer

“Because thou hast been my help,
therefore in the Shadow of thy wings
will I rejoice:” Psalm 63:7

Greater Riches than the Treasures of Egypt

Have you ever thought about the mindset of a missionary? When many Christians hear the call to missions they respond “Must I go?” The missionary responds “Can I go?” Some may ask “Why go?” while the missionary asks “Why stay?” At last some conclude “How can I go?” while the missionary concludes “How can I not go?” God is still calling missionaries to preach the Gospel of Christ and start Local Independent Baptist Churches around the world. Have you heard?

- Larry and Regina McKinney (N. American Indians) request prayer for the Indian people. There are many who struggle with the vices of alcohol and gambling. Also, they need to purchase a church van and finances for building repairs.
- Leon and Becky Wambsganss (Accent Radio) have an answer to prayer concerning Stephen, their oldest son. He had a recent biopsy, and the cancer is still in remission. The outreach ministry in China seems to have a new open doors for witnessing to non-Christians. There is an effort to use some literature online to evangelize. They request prayer that the local authorities will not interfere with this outreach.
- Ron and Kathy Valerio (Dominican Republic) conducted a dental clinic at their church. Three dentist volunteered to give free dental care. Each person received a gospel tract who came to the clinic. The Valerio's would like to enclose the children's Sunday School room and add a bathroom in the future.
- Flo Martin (Guatemala) report a well attended eleventh anniversary service in the church in Cantel. There were forty visitors present. Please remember to pray for Flo's health.

Happy Easter!
