Greetings from Spain,

We have been busy here in Southern Spain. Compared to Texas, it has been a mild summer. However, after several summers in Honduras, it has been hot this summer for us.

We had been praying for a place to plant a church, and God led us to rent a local (commercial-type premises) in Cartagena. More specifically, we are in Barrio San Gines, a working-class neighborhood just a little northeast of the Old Town.

Cartagena is a city full of history. Founded in 227 BC, Cartagena has one of the best harbors of the Mediterranean. It has an old castle downtown with ruins from ancient times, including a Roman Theater. Today, about 220,000 people live here.

Barrio San Gines has a lot of foot traffic. The building we are renting is next to a store similar to Wal-Mart. There are many foreigners living here in San Gines. We have met several from South America and Morocco. There are some Central Americans nearby interested as well.

We already have a small group of people ready to attend that we are staying connected with. The building is a little over 2,000 square feet, so we have plenty of room to grow, but we found it at a great price. We will prayerfully start meeting here within the next few months. We are working hard to get it ready.

It has been a new experience for me to deal with contractors and various workers, especially in a language where I lack some vocabulary in Spanish in some areas; however, the Lord has been sending the right people for the job.

We have been distributing tracts and flyers in this neighborhood and in a few other areas close-by. There have been some people we have met that has been praying for a new church here as well, so we believe we are right where God wants us.

Thank you all for your prayers and support. We could not do any of this without you.

The Young Family
