Missionaries to the Navajo Nation

"...Streams in the desert." Isaiah 35:6 b

Dear Pastor and Church,

March - April 2019

FAITH PROMISE

Over the past couple of months, I had the privilege of being involved with four Faith Promise Missions Conferences. It was a blessing to be able to help some good churches with their missions! I preached at Maranatha Baptist in Shiprock, NM, Old Paths Baptist in Window Rock, AZ, Bible Baptist in Hendersonville, TN, and Chambers Baptist in Chambers, AZ. Three of the churches are predominately Navajo. We teach our people to be faithful in giving to missions. Many of them were saved through missions. To whom much is given, much is required! In Tennessee I was honored to be able to present the work here on the Reservation.

FAMILY PROGRESS

Our good friend, Evangelist Ted Alexander, preached a Family Conference for us at Ganado Baptist Church. The meeting was well attended and many decisions were made. The messages revolved around several timely topics including courtship, child rearing, marriage and a couple of messages geared toward children. There is such a need for our folks to strengthen their families! Right after the Conference Dr. Bob Smith preached for us on a Wednesday night. Bro. Smith was my pastor for several years and it was good to hear him preach again. He still has God's power on him! It was a great series of services at Ganado Baptist!

FIVE PROFESSIONS

On a recent Sunday, we had the privilege of seeing five folks saved. Four were saved in our Children's Church service. The other was a real answer to prayer. A lady joined our church a few months back and two of her children have been saved and baptized. Her husband was unsaved and made it clear to me that he had no interest in salvation. He had his own belief system. After preaching a message we sang the old invitation song "Back to Bethel." I was told that Bro. Hank Haskie was dealing with him after the service. After several minutes, this man put his faith and trust in Christ! Please pray for this man (I'll call him Mel). He needs to be discipled and trained. To God be the glory!!

FEARFUL PRESUMPTION

While soulwinning one Tuesday night, I met Spencer. A family member of his was recently saved, so I went to give him the Gospel. He stared straight at me and listened intently, but with a look that was defiant. After I finished, I asked him what he thought. His response was "I don't need God. He's never done anything for me and I'm not interested in Him." I reminded him that there would come a day that he would need Him desperately. Really pray for Spencer. I like the guy and I appreciate his honesty, but I also know that there is a point where God says it's enough! How marvelous would it be to see him come to Christ!

Thank you for your faithful prayer and financial support! Your partnership with us is so important! Our busy summer season begins soon. Please pray for each VBS and all the groups that are coming out to help the various works!
