Serving the Lord in

Caxias do Sul, Southern Brazil

July 31, 2019

Dear Brethren,

After being away from the mission works for seven weeks, we were very relieved and pleased to find the congregations doing well. We praise the Lord for His preserving grace in our absence!

The two congregations were led by Vilson and Jonir, two men trained in the Word. Alexandre kept up the van ministry, transporting people to all the church services at both mission locations. We are so grateful for the sacrifice these men and their wives made to be a blessing while we were Stateside.

Our return flight began from Dallas, TX, on June 25th, with a summer temperature of 90°F. We arrived in Caxias do Sul in the afternoon of the 26th, greeted with a 30°F winter temperature that night. Although the cold and flu viruses are affecting the attendance of our people, praise the Lord we've been preserved with good health, and haven't been hindered in the ministry.

In our last letter we expressed the need and desire to exchange our car for a larger vehicle for ministry. We thank and praise the Lord that $2,250 of the $6,000 needed has already been provided by supporting churches! The van deal we wrote about fell through, so we will be searching for a better deal when the Lord supplies.

Although Brazil is going through a lengthy economic crisis, with a high unemployment rate, by God's grace most of our people still have their jobs. Alexandre, however, has now been unemployed for over six months. Companies aren't hiring management positions, and they won't hire those who are overqualified for the position available. With Alexandre is stuck in the middle of this issue, we ask for special prayer that he soon would be hired on. He is a very faithful servant of the Lord which he proved during our short furlough.

A summary of our prayer requests are:

- Our health in the middle of this cold and flu season
- Funds supplied to exchange our car for a minivan
- Employment for Alexandre
- Evangelistic outreach and discipleship of the congregation

We are so thankful for the prayer and financial support we receive each month. The Lord faithfully supplies the immediate needs, He is so great! Thank you for being a vessel He uses as part of making this happen. Lord bless!

In His service,

John & Neila Yelle
